Our Baltimore Correspondence. The Seduction Verdict-A Baltimore Jury Correcting Metals -The Democratic National Convention.

The case of Mary Ann Donnelly, vs. J. R. Keilar, was brought to a close yesterday, by a verdict of $2,500 in favor of the mother. The case, as proved, was simply as follows: - Five years ago, the defendant Kellar, seduced Resauna Donnelly, the daughter of the complainant, and follows:—Five years ago, the defendant Kellar, seduced Resaura Donnelly, the daughter of the complainant, and the daughter not finding her home agreeable, left it and was taken care of, educated, and treated with the greatest kindness, by Kellar, foroishing her with every comfort, and paying her board at different respectable boarding houses, until suspicion that she was his mistrees, compelled them a year ago, to openly acknowledge what had been so long artfully concessed—that also was his kept mistrees, since which time they have been living together as man and wife, without matrimony, in a handsomely fornished house on Frederick street, apparently as happy and true to each other, as any of those who are united in wellock. The suit was brought by the mother to obtain damages for the less of services of her daughter. The daughter is still living with Kellar, and clings to him, opposing the mether in the suit, with whom she is at the greatest enmity. The case will now go to the Supreme Court on exceptions, and if not overruled there, the daughter will bring ruit against the mother, contesting her right to the damages awarded, on the ground that she was compelled to leave her home on account of harsh tradment, and being whipped with an axe handle. When juries undertake to correct morals, they generally go too far; and there was probably more than one on the panel who has not been at kind or true to his availly wedded wife as Mr Kellar has been, and will continue to be, to Miss Rosanna Dounelly.

At the meeting of the Democrati City Convention on Thursday evening, a resolution was passed to make the necessary arrangements for the assembling of the Democratic National Convention in this city, on the first of June next.

Valentine's Day - Departure of Steamers.

The reports of a freshet on the Surquehanna, at Golumbia, have caused considerable anxiety here for the condition of the ice bridge at Havre de Grace. The holders of Lebigh and Schuyikill Navigation stock are also in dread of similar disasters on the rivers which these can als bor-der. The passengers from Baltimore passed over the Sus-quehas na, about eleven o'clock, at Havre de Grace, and quehas na, about eleven o'clock, at Havre de Grace, and there were then no signs of a freshet. The passengers by the express train from Baitimore, were also passed over in rafety. The latest advices by telegraph say that the ice has broken up at Port Deposit, and that much damage is apprehended. The Ba itmore Railroad line will probably surpend their ten o'clock train to-night, or else run it by way of the Frenchtown route. The arrangements for this have been made for some time, in anticipation of a break up of the ice bridge.

The wounded burglar, Jerse Brannan, is lying in a critical condition at the county prison, but will make no confession or acknowledgment that he was one of the robbers of the jewelry store in Manayunk. He has pravicated in his accounts of himself; but though aware of his danger persists in eaying that he was about by a member of the South Penn hose. This is known to be false, as there was no alarm of fire on the night in question—no gun fired in the neighborhood where he says he was wounded.

This is Valentine day, though the snow with which the ground is covered renders it an unfitting time for cooing birds to choose their mates. The valentines are going off riowly, compared with former years; but those selling are of the handoome description, while malicious articles, so general for years past are thrown saide.
